

Parents/Spectator Code of Conduct

- Parents and spectators should remember that young players play football for fun
- Parents and spectators should always applaud good play, effort and performance from both team's players and not just results
- Parents and spectators should always remain outside the field of play or within any designated spectator area
- Parents and spectators should ensure that players obtain a sense of personal achievement have high self-esteem
- Parents and spectators should ensure that players improve their skills and techniques
- Parents and spectators should ensure that players have a positive attitude and show respect to other players, club officials, club coaches, match officials and other players and spectators
- Parents and spectators should always be positive and encouraging towards all of the players not just their own and always respect the match officials' decisions
- Parents and spectators should develop an appropriate supportive relationship with both club officials and their son or daughter based on mutual trust and respect. Support the club's decisions and discuss any concerns directly with the club
- Parents and spectators must never engage in, or tolerate, offensive, insulting, or abusive language or behavior
- Parents and spectators must never coach any player during the game or confuse the players by telling them what to do
- Parents and spectators must never shout and scream or criticise a player for making a mistake as mistakes are part of the development of a player
- Parents and spectators MUST always encourage everyone participating in football